Clause H.39 - Option to Extend

The Government has the unilateral right to extend this contract through December 31, 2000. The Government also has the unilateral right to extend the contract's term until September 30, 2004. In no event shall performance under this contract continue after September 30, 2004, pursuant to this option provision. The Government shall provide a preliminary notification to the Contractor of its intent to exercise an option at least thirty days prior to the expiration date of the contract. Such preliminary notification does not bind the Government to exercise an option. An option may be exercised by providing written notice to the Contractor up to the date of expiration of the Contract.

Clause H.39 has been deleted per Modification M362.
